Den dritten großen Forschungsbereich innerhalb der nordischen Forschung stellt die literaturwissenschaftliche Erforschung der nordischen Literatur dar, die sich von der Wissenschaftlichen Literaturwissenschaft der älteren Forschungsgenerationen abhebt. Die Forschungsergebnisse sind mit der Entdeckung von neuen Quellen und der Analyse der Strukturen der nordischen Literatur verbunden. In der Regel werden die nordischen Texte in ihrer gesamten Ausgangsform analysiert, um die Struktur, die thematische und die stilistische Struktur der Texte aufzudecken. Die Forschungsergebnisse sind in den Forschungsberichten und in den Arbeiten der Forschenden niedergelegt.
